PennyDrops Mentor Opportunities and Events

February 20 & 21- Workshop at Jasper Place High School

Each day will consist of 4 blocks, each with a different class. We will have one or two people presenting and are hoping to have a mentor for every 5-6 students during the presentation in order to assist and encourage them through the workbook. The block schedule is:

Block 1: 9-10:20

Block 2: 10:30-11:50

Lunch 11:50- 12:40

Block 3 12:40-1:50

Block 4 2:00- 3:20

February 25- Financial Literacy Month Workshop Series at MacEwan @5-6:30 pm

Held in the multipurpose room in building 6, we will be hosting 4 15-minute workshops covering various personal finance topics. Patrons will receive a stamp for attending each workshop. A completed "passport" with all 4 stamps will serve as an entry ballot to win 1 of 4 tickets to our joint event with the Commerce Club on March 10.

*Mandatory Online Training for this Workshop will be held in the morning on February 23.

Fraser Institute's Free Public Policy Seminar & Luncheon

Sheraton Eau Claire in Calgary on February 29th

Free one-day student seminar with presentations from leading policy experts, Q&A, and informal discussions. Lunch is included. In addition to our great speakers, and networking with leaders in the region during the luncheon and discussion groups, attendees will receive a certificate of completion they may use to update their LinkedIn profiles and will also be eligible for our many raffle prizes.

BUS INFORMATION

There will be complimentary return bus service from Edmonton to Calgary. If you wish to register for the bus, please indicate so on the registration form.
